August 17: Read 2:1 to 3:9 of the Second Letter to Timothy
New Collegeville Bible Commentary pages 41-46

How can using metaphors like soldiers, athletes, farmers, workmen, slaves, and vessels, help us to understand and then teach others about our faith?

What does it mean that “the word of God is not chained”?

What problems arise from disputing about words, and profane, idle talk, and foolish, ignorant debates?

In what ways does the description of how people will behave during the Last Days compare to the behavior of the people of today? Which of those vices do you struggle with?
